

Some good news from Brazil

Posted by Heading Out on May 19, 2005 - 11:43am

Brazil seems to be having some good returns in the Campos Basin, helping Petrobras to new production records of 1.82 mbd. on their way to an anticipated target of 14% increase in production over last year. Their costs, as a reference, are about $4 a barrel, according to the article in Rigzone.
