Ezra Klein reacts to the oil wargames last week:

"This article, detailing the results of a simulation focusing on oil crises, is worth reading for an idea of why people are concerned about peak oil. My excellent guests from the Oil Drum gave you a nice rundown this week, but hearing it from Gene Sperling and former CIA directors James Woolsey and Robert Gates has an authenticity that's hard to match."

Ez then goes on to discuss his thoughts on why peak oil is a big deal. Definitely worth the time.
