Topic: Miscellaneous

Tags: conference, peak oil, powerswitch, united kingdom [list all tags]

On 28th July 2007, PeakSpeak returns for the third year running to BedZed, giving everyone interested in Peak Oil and its surrounding issues a chance to speak about the Peak. This is Powerswitch's annual free event and is a great opportunity to chat to other people about your concerns and hopes. PeakSpeak 1 and 2 were wonderful informal gatherings that inspired people to go on and make a difference.

This event is ideal for people who know what Peak Oil is and would enjoy a chance to examine the surrounding issues in more detail, looking at the consequences and solutions. If you ever feel you wanted to chat about everything Peak Oil related for hours on end, then this is for you!

Along with all the discussion, learning, speaking and listening, there will be a chance to be in a Peak Oil documentary (tbc), and also to buy the newly released 'ESCAPE FROM SUBURBIA'.

To register simply email info@powerswitch.org.uk
