It's been one hell of a day here at TOD. I'll leave the technical stuff to SG to explain if he wishes to, but I think our ISP was unable to cope with all of the (very welcome) traffic from our Katrina coverage. We'll see once we investigate further. We think the problem has been resolved and we really apologize for the inconvenience, we want you to be able to rely on us.

So, here's an open thread. Please note the Red Cross box in the upper right hand corner.
