So far only about 1,000 people have rented End Of Suburbia on Netflix. A simple way to put this film on the map is if everyone puts this in their Netflix queue and rents in in the next month. Then when people interested in documentaries they will see End of Suburbia as in the top 25 most popular movies. Let's give it a shot.

Also, if you have already seen it, give it a 5 star rating.
